Hymn Workshop

Saturday, February 23, 9:30-11:30 a.m.

First United Methodist, 206 W. Johnson Ave., Springdale

This event is designed to be a sharing/demonstration of experiences with hymn playing. We want attendees to provide favorite hymn embellishments—introductions, interludes, modulations, reharmonizations, etc.—to play (or to have someone play!) so that we may enjoy them together. Or just lending your voice as we sing would be enjoyable for all!

If you possess certain published collections of hymn enhancements that you have found most satisfyingly accessible over the years, or if you have your own arrangements whether written down or 'just happening', we would love to see and/or hear examples! My favorite "Go-To" volumes here include Henry Coleman, Noel Rawsthorne, David N. Johnson, and others.

Those who are comfortable with the concept of improvisation [Yes, that would be some of you Episcopalian types out there!], we would enjoy hearing demos and explanations of how you extend a hymn as a processional or offering collection goes into overtime.

We want this to be a low-pressure, mutually edifying encounter. So please come and sing! And share if you like! Please let me know your plans at 479.549.8247 or ewhitmor@jbu.edu. Or I may be calling YOU! :) Refreshments at 9:30; music by 10:00.

Thank you, Orgiano Duo!

Your program January 31 at Central Methodist was delightful! We were blessed by your impressive talent, depth of selections, and congenial banter. And we anticipate hearing you and your wonderful instruments again in the near future and through many years to come.
